

Christ Church News

JUNE 2018

Welcome to the second edition of Christ Church News.

We are still waiting for an editor to offer their services for the next edition... could that be you?

There has been a number of social events in our church over the past month including coffee morning/ bring and buy; a Chinese Buffet and games evening; a Big Brekkie morning for Christian Aid ; and a wonderful Evening where we listened to the Aber Male Voice choir and our resident soloist, Gareth Erlandson.

Most of these events have been fund raising events as we seek to raise funds for our new church hall. Thank You to all who supported them.

As with last month there has been sadness in our church family as we have mourned the death of Peggy Ingamells. Peggy was church warden for many years and has been a loving faithful member of our church.

She will be sorely missed.

Olivia Lucas on Radio Cymru

Olivia read from Luke 2:41-52 during the recording of the weekly service "Yr Oedfa" on Radio Cymru which was broadcast on Sunday April 29th. Olivia is a pupil in Ysgol Gyfun Glantaf and much to her delight was allowed to miss a Maths lesson on the Thursday afternoon to attend the recording in the BBC studios in Llandaff.

It was very appropriate that Olivia participated in the service because she was reading about the boy Jesus visiting the temple in Jerusalem when he was twelve years old. Olivia is also twelve years old and despite the fact that she is from a non Welsh speaking family her contribution was very clear and impressive. Surprisingly she did not appear nervous although thousands of listeners tune in to the weekly service on Radio Cymru.

Well done Olivia for your enthusiastic contribution to the broadcast and to Mary, her proud grandmother for supporting her as she consistently does in various activities.

Gwilym Roberts

The service "Yr Oedfa" can be heard on the Radio Cymru archive under the name of Parchedig (Rev) Gwilym Wyn Roberts [broadcast April 29th, 2018]

CHINESE CAPERS

Jane Song organised a wonderful evening in the Church Hall. There was great turn out.

Everyone enjoyed the hot and cold buffet and entertainment. The food was cooked by a Chinese chef and we were kept entertained by a series of cryptic clues that decorated the church hall. Painted silk fans were given to the winners.

A great evening was had by all thanks to Jane and all those who worked very hard to give us such a fun evening .

CHATTERBOX

Chatterbox continues to thrive and grow in numbers. We now have about 30 members with an average weekly attendance of 20 – 25.

Ann Francis leader

Each week we welcome babies and toddlers, mothers, fathers and grandparents.

We offer a welcoming safe environment where the children can play happily and where the adults can find friendship and support in each other.

The children have numerous toys to play with and a different topical craft is offered each week.

Mid afternoon, we offer a healthy snack for the children, and tea and coffee for the adults (who are offered not so healthy biscuits and cake!).

Each child's birthday is celebrated with a birthday cake.

The afternoon ends with the singing of action nursery rhymes.

We hope that Chatterbox will give the children confidence and help prepare them for the wider world of other children and their transition to nursery school.

A big thank you to Gill Barker and Mary Hales

THE BIG BREKKIE

The 3 Brexfateers !

At the end of Christian Aid Week we raised over £210 in our Big Brekkie which was attended by lots of church members as they enjoyed breakfast together. THANKS to all the organisers especially Justine and Emma

Trystan's Sabbatical

Please pray for Trystan. After the most strenuous walk on the North Wales Pilgrim Path, he found that his back problem had come back with a vengeance. We all need time aside with God and perhaps God's idea was that Trystan needed to rest in His arms and draw closer to Him.

OUR CHURCH FAMILY

Earlier in the year we were sad to lose two very faithful members of Christ Church, Dorothy Moore and Nancy Eyre.

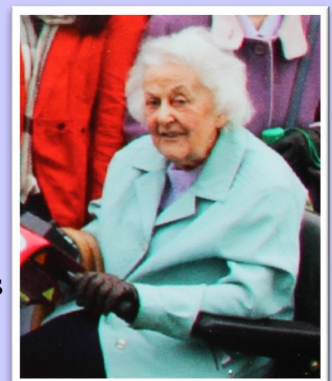

DOROTHY MOORE
5th May 1923—
2nd February 2018

Dorothy and her late husband Ken were regular worshippers here from the outset as were Nancy and Cedric Eyre together with Margaret, Catherine and Peter their children.

Both ladies attended Christ Church Good Companions social events until shortly before their deaths, Dorothy having a lift with June Lloyd and Nancy motoring down on her Scooter.

Nancy donated the "PRAYING HANDS" woodcut which can be seen on the wall near the office door.

MIRIAM NANCY EYRE
18th March 1923—16th

Their funerals reflected the love and affection felt for them by their families and the family of Christchurch May they rest in Peace and rise in Glory.
